Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39

Fr. Molini's Notes

Welcome, Fr. Lawson!

I'm pleased to officially welcome Fr. Robert Lawson to our parishes. His pastoral assignment begins on July 1, but he has been diligently moving in early to get a head-start on his ministry. As we move forward, his particular duties will be discerned as he learns about our parish communities and wide range of events and activities. At present, I'm grateful for his pastoral zeal and desire to lead the communities in prayer and worship. Please continue to extend a warm welcome to him as we celebrate the parish lives of St. Raphael the Archangel and St. Gabriel the Archangel.

Independence Day

Looking ahead, make plans to join us to pray for our country on July 4th. At a time when so many talk about the challenges and differences in our country, this day is important for joining together in prayer, appealing to heaven for our republic.

Mass at St. Raphael will be at 8:00am on July 4th.

Mass at St. Gabriel will be at 9:00am on July 4th.

A custom I've continued with my family each July 4th is to read the Declaration of Independence after dinner, allowing all members to take a part. The teens roll their eyes, but it makes a point of what our ancestors had to face and their reliance upon the mercy of God.

Included in this bulletin is the Prayer for the Nation composed by the first Catholic Bishop of the United States, John Carroll. Consider using it for your personal reflection about our nation.

Looking for a "country picnic"?

Often enough, I hear parishioners speak about going to a parish picnic in the country for great fried chicken, kettle beef, and an old-fashioned picnic experience. I have one to offer for your consideration. On August 18, St. Patrick's "Rock Church" near Catawissa, Missouri, will host its annual picnic, beginning with Holy Mass at 11:00am, followed by food, games, and music. The original parish was established in 1844 and later a stone church was constructed. The present historic church stands as it was rebuilt in 1886 after a devastating fire. The church is maintained by a historical society that is supported by the proceeds from the picnic. The address is 150 Rock Church Rd, Catawissa, MO 63015. You may wish to use GPS to find it as there are several turns. It is about 50 minutes away, and, yes, it is near where my parents lived. I enjoyed this picnic growing up and still help by offering the Mass.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish of Saint Raphael the Archangel, celebrate Jesus as the center of our life. Through our active participation in the Eucharist, we strive to recognize Jesus in our daily lives and the lives of others. Our commitment is to grow as a parish family, and live this through our religious, educational, social, and civic involvements, witnessing to all, our faith in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

"...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." 2 CORINTHIANS 8:14

One of the tenets of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ." We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus cures the lady afflicted with hemorrhages. He tells her to go in peace. So often Jesus speaks of peace in the Gospels. Peace is sitting in comfort and calm, knowing that Jesus is next to us. When we are able to assist our neighbors in need to get past a hurdle, Jesus is helping us to bring them His peace. Thank you for your constant prayers and donations.

The following prayer was composed by Baltimore Archbishop John Carroll in 1791. Bishop Carroll was the first bishop of the United States.

We pray, O almighty and eternal God, who through Jesus Christ has revealed thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of your name.

We pray Thee, who alone are good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal and sanctity of life, our chief bishop, the pope, the vicar of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the government of his Church; our own bishop, all other bishops, prelates, and pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct your people into the ways of salvation.

We pray, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist with your Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude the president of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness and be eminently useful to your people over whom he presides; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality.

Let the light of your divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge; and may perpetuate to us the blessing of equal liberty.

We pray for his excellency, the governor of this state, for the members of the assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by your powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise, to your unbounded mercy, all our brethren and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of your most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray to you, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of your servants departed, who are gone before us with the sign of faith and repose in the sleep of peace; the souls of our parents, relatives, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation, and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech you, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior.

Amen.

Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth

The Catholic Church has a well-documented tradition of Care for Creation and Stewardship of the Earth. We will feature resources intended to serve as an introduction on this issue. This is just one element of our Catholic teaching that highlights this tradition.

Address to Diplomatic Corps, January 2010, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

"This concern and commitment for the environment should be situated within the larger framework of the great challenges now facing mankind. If we wish to build true peace, how can we separate, or even set a odds, the protection of the environment and the protection of human life, including the life of the unborn? It is in man's respect for himself that his sense of responsibility for creation is shown."
